February 20, 1969

11:30 A.M.

In the process of completing her official file on the February 17, 1969 primary election results, (Miss) Theo Fulton, City Clerk, discovered a possible discrepancy on the face of the tabulated returns.

Miss Fulton thereupon notified the Board of Canvassers who reconvened at 11:30 a.m. on February 20, 1969.

The Board confirmed that an error had in fact been made and that the face of the returns for the Second Ward city council race credited Harold Dachtler with an additional 100 votes by virtue of an error in an adding machine tape that was at variance with the official return book.

The Board submitted a recertification of the returns officially confirming that S. N. Corey, Jr. was nominated as a candidate for Second Ward Councilman at the general election.

The official returns for the Second Ward race were as follows:
